Come gather 'round people wherever you roam
And admit that the waters around you have grown
And accept it that soon you'll be drenched to the bone,
If your time to you is worth savin'
Then you better start swimmin'
Or you'll sink like a stone,
FOR THE TIMES THEY ARE A-CHANGIN'.

Come writers and critics who prophecies with your pen
And keep your eyes wide, the chance won't come again.
And don't speak too soon for the wheel's still in spin
And there's no tellin' who that it's namin'
For the loser now
Will be later to win
FOR THE TIMES THEY ARE A-CHANGIN'.

Come senators, congressmen, please heed the call
Don't stand in the hallway, don't block up the hall.
For he that gets hurt will be he who has stalled
There's a battle outside and it's ragin'
It'll soon shake your windows
And rattle your walls
FOR THE TIMES THEY ARE A-CHANGIN'.

Come mothers and fathers, throughout the land
And don't criticize what you can't understand.
Your sons and your daughters are beyond your command
Your old road is rapidly agin'
Please get out of the new one
If you can't lend a hand
FOR THE TIMES THEY ARE A-CHANGIN'.

The line it is drawn, the curse it is cast
The slow one now will later be fast.
As the present now will later be past
The order is rapidly fadin'
And the first one now
Will later be last

FOR THE TIMES THEY ARE A-CHANGIN' . . .

GRADUATIONS MEAN A LOT OF THINGS—farewells and memories, new resolutions and beginnings.

Along with our warm congratulations to the graduates goes the suggestion to friends and relatives that the more thought put into the selection of graduation gifts, the more likely they are to be appreciated and remembered.

(And if you graduates have any strong hints you'd like to enter on our "Most-Wanted" List, we'll be glad to pass them along to the folks at home, or friends when they come in to shop.)

When All the Laughter Dies in Sorrow

When all the laughter dies in sorrow
And the tears have risen to a flood
When all the wars have found a cause
In human wisdom and in blood
Do you think they'll cry in sadness
Do you think the eye will blink
Do you think they'll curse the madness
Do you even think they'll think

When all the great galactic systems
Sigh to a frozen halt in space
Do you thing there will be some remnant
Of beauty of the human race
Do you think there will be a vestige
Or a sniffle or a cosmic tear
Do you think a greater thinking thing
Will give a damn that man was here
